Peg Game

Quality hardwood peg game for hours of fun. Remember the first time you played the peg game? It probably was on the table at that famous country store's dining table with family or friends. This classic peg game became one of our favorites during our many trips across the US so we decided to make these and spread the fun. We made a small batch of these peg games with just a few of our customers in mind. Well, the word got out and we were asked to make even more available to share.

Others may question your I.Q with the challenge of having only one peg left but we just love finding new solutions to the puzzle and sharing the joy. Practice makes perfect but you can also find a solution here.
